Projects:

MECHANICAL ENGINEERING:

Mini Segway :
This is a project of self-balancing vehicle where one can use it for short distance travel. It involves the principle of gyroscope with sensor breaking. Its applications are in an industry, automobile hub, hospitals.

Mini CNC:
This project resembles the real time CNC machine in both construction and working. Numerical control with GRBL installation is the main criteria. We created the platform such that we are able to trace the image in SVG, develop G-code, upload in ARDUINO Board, run the stepped motors to the Action. Finally, a numerical pen tracer is achieved
